

The Hutong

Sharing Culture, Sharing Knowledge

The Hutong is Beijing's cultural exchange centre for foreigners, expatriates and locals nestled in the heart of old Beijing in a renovated courtyard home. For a bit of what Beijing has to offer, check out some of our most popular offerings below. To book a private event, we require a minimum of 6 participants and maximum of 12, except for the Hook N Cook, which has a minimum of 12 participants. Contact info@thehutong.com or +86 1590 104 6127 for more information.

Hook N Cook

Enter the Hutong, and you'll experience our dynamic environment where your team can come together, unwind, and have a great time. The Hutong's signature Hook N Cook is our trademark culinary group event, and takes the meaning of teamwork to a whole new level. The members of your team step out of their comfort zones and into our welcoming Hutong Kitchen, where they roll up their sleeves, and transform into master chefs. 3 hours.

Price: 280RMB per person

Culinary Market Tour

Chinese cuisine can appear intimidating, but fear not! Orient your taste buds with the Hutong's culinary market tour. This walking tour will help you setup their own Chinese kitchen, as well as to get over the intimidation and confusion of the Chinese food market. Our interactive and practical local walking tour will help you to explore the colorful and fresh items in a local market, and our knowledgeable guide will provide tips on how to most effectively use your Chinese kitchen. The tour can easily be combined with a cooking class. 90 minutes.

Cooking Classes

The Hutong's team of Chinese and International chefs are not only at the top of their field in the culinary world, but also know how to have a lot of fun! During our two and a half hour cooking courses, participants learn how to use a wok and cleaver with confidence, how to identify, use and pair key ingredients, and how to make fragrant oils and chili paste, all from scratch. For a listing of Chinese and other cooking classes, go to <http://thehutong.com/blog/events/>. 180 minutes.

Price: 250 - 280RMB per person (depending on class selection)

Maliandao Tea Market Tour

Join a group of fellow tea connoisseurs, amateurs, and thirsty friends on a journey to Beijing's Maliandao Tea city, an area filled with the best tea wholesaling and tasting in the region. Start the late morning off with some light green teas, then a spectacular northwest Fujian-style lunch. After lunch, try some of China's best oolong, black, and pu'er teas. Ample time is left for questions, discussions, and shopping. 4 - 6 hours.
